Dear MAG members,

Our annual Salon/Reception at the UW Hospital and Clinics is almost over. Please consider this a reminder to pick up your work on Saturday, August 1st. As always, we are looking for your input on how to make the whole process better. We went way over budget with this year's Salon/Reception and need to do things better with less money. We have already come up with some very good ideas that we will be passing on to you in up coming issues of the newsletter. A very big pat on the back to all of you for bringing in such high quality work!

I am looking forward to our next new member jurying, our Fall Dinner, All Guild/Invitational Art Show and our trip to see SOFA or the Chicago Art Institute.

This fall Loretta Dooley and other MAG associates will participate in a panel discussion on effective ways to sell your artwork. Loretta is very knowledgeable and we are hoping for a good turn out. More on these panels soon.

Our resource committee was put on hold by summer vacations, etc., but we hope to hold our first meeting soon. Again, if you have any ideas, please e-mail me. Your ideas will definitely be looked into.

Respectfully submitted,
 Beatrice Williams

7/6/09 MAG meeting minutes

Present: Loretta Dooley, Beatrice Williams, Norma Hove, Kathy Winters, Merikay Payne

Chicago trip: Kerri Shannon, organizer, was absent. No date has been set. MAG will have an invitation in the Wisconsin Painters and Sculptors newsletter. Merikay Payne will send a request to invite UW art undergrads and 14 South Artists members.

By-laws: Due to time constraints there was no vote on the by-laws at the June Salon member meeting. Beatrice Williams will call Sally Probasco to see if the Fall Dinner would be an acceptable time to put the by-law vote before the members. Lori Haack will be organizing the Fall Dinner. No date has been set.

Salon reception: Beatrice Williams will thank Kathryn Lederhause for her work and ask her to attend the Salon review of procedures. The executive committee will meet for a half hour before the August 3 meeting to review the costs and process for the 2010 Salon. Norma Hove will bring her Salon packet to the August 3 meeting for reference.

Newsletter ads: There will be an ad for Lynn's in the newsletter.

Letters to gift suppliers. Beatrice Williams will send thank you letters to Salon contributors and ask if they would like to have a complementary ad in the newsletter. If they are interested, a scan of their business card could be used.

Art Fair: Kathy Winters said 4 people out of 6 have responded to her about the Art Fair. All six have paid their share of the area. By July 20 each artist in the Art Fair should pay Norma the MAG 5% commission on what they sold.

Treasurer's report: The Salon cost $2369, not including publication of the Salon booklet. In order to save money next year the awards will be printed double sided rather than the booklet. The Salon had 122 participate out of 143 members. Norma will give the list of absent members to Cindy Koshalek, member coordinator, to contact. There were 26 awards. Income from the Salon was 122 members/$10 fee. Expenses were $300 judge, $1040 awards (includes $150 donations and $100 from WPS), $640 reception, $133 ribbons and a fee for mailing the packets.

Resource committee: Beatrice Williams would like to begin meeting. She will e-mail members: Norma Hove, Beatrice Williams, Cindy Koshalek, Kerri Shannon, Marcia Jezwinski.
